The German American Chamber of Commerce (GACC West) is part of the worldwide network of German Chambers of Commerce abroad. We support the economic interests of German companies in the US and pursue the mission to connect stakeholders and ideas in key industries, empower innovation journeys, and create economic opportunities for the transatlantic community. GACC West's programs support small and medium-sized companies (SMEs) on all issues relating to US market entry and expansion, as well as facilitate innovation journeys. Examples include week-long innovation programs to transfer Silicon Valley mindset and knowledge to German executives; delegations from advanced industries like smart manufacturing, mobility, biotechnology and cleantech to connect with potential customers and stakeholders; and customized programs for economic developers and state delegations.

As Marketing and Communications Intern, you will play a key role in engaging and growing our transatlantic community by shaping our overall content strategy and brand voice as well as promoting our programs, services and events
